

Macquarie Muster

AUSTRALIA DAY AT THOMPSON SQUARE

When: Sunday, 26th January 2014

Time: 12 noon

Location: Thompson Square, Windsor

We look forward to seeing you all at Thompson Square for the Macquarie Muster:

- ✓ Lots of exciting activities for a fantastic family day
- ✓ Wendy Harmer is judging the Great Aussie Cupcake Muster
- ✓ We will be revealing our new campaign song*.

*The band responsible is Woodford, a bunch of local, professional, session musicians. The song is fantastic. We have to wait for its official release but we will be playing it today for our lucky musterers!

Thompson Square has been continuously occupied by protestors since Sunday, 21st July 2013 when thousands rallied there to protest against the O'Farrell Government's plans to bulldoze a major arterial road through Australia's oldest town square.

Despite planning approval being granted by Minister Hazzard just five days before Christmas, the 'CAWB Consulate' in the Square remains occupied 24 hours a day, seven days a week and is proving to be a powerful symbol of resistance and a rallying point for the mounting community anger towards the State Government over this matter.
